To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this Letter of Recommendation on behalf of Haley Stojak. Haley is currently serving as a student teacher in the Social Science Department at Buffalo Grove High School. During her student teaching experience, Haley participated in the Human Geography Professional Learning Community (PLC). Buffalo Grove's PLC is an evolving environment used to establish a school-wide culture that develops teacher leadership. Additionally, we focus on designing curriculum that addresses the school and district educational goals. As I am our PLC leader, I can directly state that Haley was a very active participant in the group.

While serving on the PLC, Haley designed skill-based lessons and curriculum for three Human Geography units. Under the guidance of her cooperating teacher, Haley created a skill-based review and assessment for the Migration unit. She presented and shared this material with the PLC. On several occasions, Haley shared novel, technologically-driven, content-specific curriculum.

Using her knowledge of the College Readiness Skills (CRS), Haley also created an innovative reading readiness guide for the Urbanization unit. Haley developed various activities for the PLC that focused on enhancing students' abilities to recognize and identify key vocabulary terms. Her work enhanced several units of study, especially the Population unit.

Haley also attended our Human Geography PLC workshop that focused on the development of new curriculum. While working closely with her cooperative teacher, Haley created a skills-based assessment for the unit on Economic Development. At all times, Haley was an integral and well respected member of the PLC. Demonstrating effective communication skills, Haley displayed a positive, collaborative rapport with other staff members.

I recommend Haley without reservation for a teaching position in Social Science. She is an insightful and confident educator, who would be an asset to any Social Science Department. As PLC leader, I directly observed the significant, positive impact that Haley brought. I believe that Haley possesses the qualities needed as an effective teacher and co-worker. It has been a pleasure working with her.

To university admissions:

I'm pleased to provide this letter as my endorsement to [redacted]'s university application.

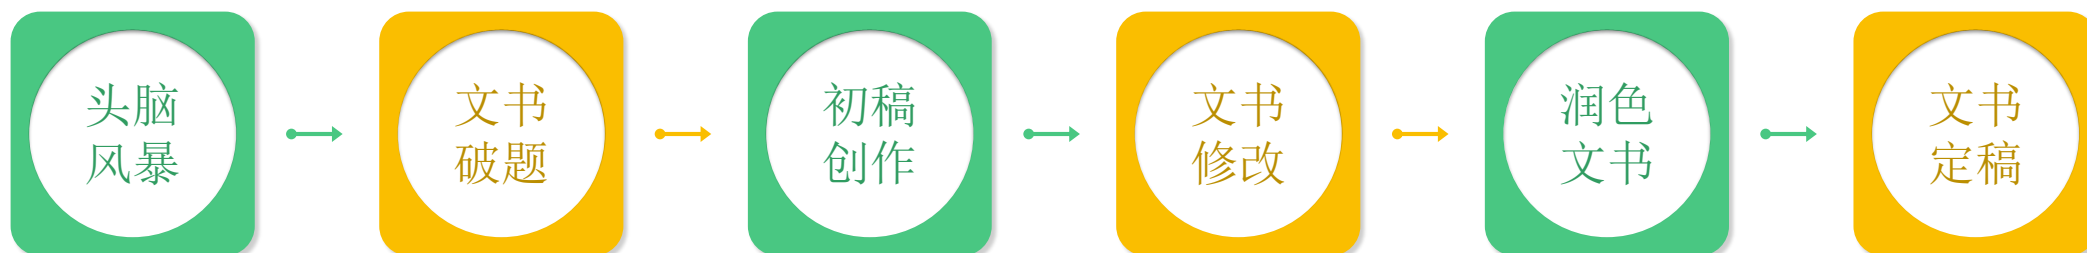

Guanwen and I met through a business partner. I gave Guanwen a LeEco phone as a New Year gift, and he used it for his own Android application development. Guanwen is an ambitious young man with high potential; I admire his enthusiasm in business development.

I'm looking forward to seeing his academic and career success in the future.

Sincerely,

Jia Yueting
